

A Rockport History as reflected in the lives of a local fisherman, a postman and a policeman.

Sandy Bay Historical Society Presents

Nathan Ives and Paul St.Germain have combined their research and writing talents to create a unique presentation describing the lives of three well known Rockport citizens. They highlight their contributions to life here in Rockport through their occupations over one-hundred and twenty years ago.

Monday August 9

6:30PM

Spiran Hall

Broadway, Rockport

Admission is Free